FLOOR DEBATE

May 20, 2003

LB 430

So maybe it's maybe not a bad idea, Senator Chambers. On the other hand, Senator Brown pointed out to me that we're probably discriminating against pork cutlets and chicken, and I think we even have fish farms, fish raised in Nebraska. So maybe this wouldn't be a good idea after all, Senator. Would you like to respond, Senator Chambers?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, would you respond?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I shall. Senator Schimek, we cannot be all things to all people. We cannot hang too heavy a title on the Secretary of State, because we do not want him or her to be overburdened by the duties that we are imposing. And since the purpose of this bill is to name that person chief protocol officer, we should, if we're going to do this at all, do something that typifies what the state is deeply involved in. And agriculture is what we're involved in. For Senator Wehrbein's information, I agree that that motto that Omaha adopted, medium rare, well done, or whatever it was, made no sense to me. I didn't even know what it meant. So this amendment is not designed to tell anybody how to prepare his or her meat, or what type of steak. It's a generic term, and I think it would comport with the duties of the Secretary of State. So, Senator Schimek, whereas everything you said, each one of those items that you mentioned, has merit, we can't please everyone. So we will limit this to what I'm offering at this time. And I'm glad that Senator Bromm is going to support the amendment. And I will take it to a vote. If you think you may have misgivings later, what will it hurt to adopt it now? Think of how it will publicize what the Secretary of State's new duties will be. And I doubt that the Secretary of State would object. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. I guess, Senator Schimek, that was your time. Did you wish to have the remaining, Senator Schimek? Senator Preister.

SENATOR PREISTER: Thank you, Mr. President. Could I ask Senator Chambers a question, if he would yield, please?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yes, you may. Senator Chambers?
